

CATEGORIES OF NAB MEMBERSHIP

TIER ONE (individual licensees-Commercial broadcasting and Public broadcasting of national and regional scope whether provided FTA or Subscription)

If you hold an ICASA individual broadcasting licence or individual broadcasting signal distribution licence, you are eligible for full membership of the NAB. Tier one members participate in NAB Committees and Activities. The NAB Exco comprises chairpersons and deputy chairpersons of the NAB standing committees. The standing committees are; (1) commercial radio committee, (2) technical committee, (3) community radio committee, (4) television committee.

TIER TWO (class licensees)

If you hold an ICASA Class (community) licence, you are eligible for Tier Two membership and participate in the Community Radio and/or Community TV Committees of the NAB. You have access to all NAB newsletters, industry updates, NAB research and participation in NAB roundtables and events.

TIER THREE (Associate member: a business or individual associated with broadcasting/ICT sector)

If you are a non-licensed entity, or an individual or business associated to broadcasting and/or or an authorised channel (on an individual licensee's bouquet), then you are eligible for Tier Three membership. You have access to all NAB newsletters, industry updates, NAB roundtables, events and NAB Research.

(Tier Three includes: engineers, technical experts, research and broadcast training specialists, amongst others).

All categories listed above pay an additional fee to participate in the NAB Technical Committee.*

Please contact the NAB office for a breakdown of the fees per category.

Once a membership form is completed (see below) and the NAB Exco has approved the membership, an invoice will be generated for payment.
